Describe your favorite subject in school.

- What is it?
- Why do you like it?
- How long have you studied it?
- Why is it important to you?

Past

I am not in school anymore, but when I was in high school, my favorite subject was history. At that time, I was totally fascinated by this subject and I even formed the first history club in my high school.

Present

I don't currently study history in school anymore, since I graduated a few years ago. But, even though, I don't study it in a formal way, I still enjoy reading lots of books and watching documentaries about different historical events.

Future

And, in the future, I am going to try to go on vacation to historical cities, like Cairo and Rome, to learn more about the history of these famous ancient cities.

Present

I enjoy studying history because I find it fascinating to learn about the most influential people who have ever lived and to learn about events that have shaped society.

Past

My interest in history first began when I watch the kids TV series Horrible History. This was a great TV show for kids explaining some funny and not so pleasant parts of history in an easy and enjoyable format.

Future

I am pretty sure I will always be interested in history and will continue to read books and watch documentaries about it.
